

Resolution 92-43

"Keep Your Nose Clean During Elections"

Authored by:	Matt Russell, Andy Ternay
Sponsored by:	Tracey Cox
Date Submitted:	1992-09-15
Date Considered:	1992-10-13
Committee:	Rules and Appropriations
Action:	Passed in General Body
Result:	26-7-0
Remarks:	IMPLEMENTED
Whereas:	Elections of any sort tend to lead to distasteful displays of favoritism; and
Whereas:	Although specific groups and people may deserve recognition for various reasons, it is generally recognized as inappropriate to call for honors via Student Congress legislation to serve selfish ends; and
Whereas:	There are more appropriate ways to honor people and organizations in Student Congress meetings (announcement phase of meeting, for instance); and
Whereas:	Student Congress meeting time is valuable and limited.
Be It Therefore Resolved That:	Any candidate running for ANY Student Congress office, or any elected position, shall not Author or Sponsor any "honors" Legislation after filing for said office; and
Be It Further Resolved That:	Any bill filed in spite of this resolution be declared null and void by the Executive Committee prior to bringing said bill to the general meeting.

Resolution 92 - 43

UTA Student Congress

TITLE: KEEP YOUR NOSE CLEAN DURING ELECTIONS

AUTHOR(S): MATT RUSSELL AND ANDY TERNAY

SPONSOR(S): TRACY COX

DATE SUBMITTED: 9-15-92

DATE CONSIDERED: October 13, 1992

REFERRED TO: Rules

ACTION TAKEN:

RESULT: 7-26-0

REMARKS:

Whereas: Elections of any sort tend to lead to distasteful displays of favoritism, and,

Whereas: Although specific groups and people may deserve recognition for various reasons, it is generally recognized as inappropriate to call for honors via Student Congress legislation to serve selfish ends, and

Whereas: There are more appropriate ways to honor people and organizations in Student Congress meetings (announcement phase of meeting, for instance), and

Whereas: Student Congress meeting time is valuable and limited,

Be It Therefore Resolved That: Any candidate running for any Student Congress office, or any elected position, shall not Author or Sponsor any "honors" Legislation after filing for said office.

Further Resolved That: Any bill filed in spite of this resolution be declared null and void by the Executive Committee prior to bringing said bill to the general meeting.